

2010 ADSA Midwest Branch and ASAS Midwestern Section Graduate Student Program Committee Nomination

The ADSA Midwest Branch and ASAS Midwestern Section will be establishing a Graduate Student Program Planning Committee.

At this time you have the opportunity to nominate graduate students to be on the Graduate Student Program Planning Committee. Three graduate students will be chosen for this committee.

The Graduate Student Program Planning Committee will have two charges:

- 1.) This committee will be charged with development of symposia directed specifically for graduate students, networking and career development events for graduate students, and social events for students at the Midwest meetings. The committee will be advised by Amy Radunz, faculty member at UW, Madison and former graduate student board member for the National ASAS board.
- 2.) The three graduate students serving on the Graduate Student Program Planning Committee will elect one person to serve in an advisory capacity to the Midwest ASAS ADSA board (two-year, non-voting term).

The Graduate Student Program Planning Committee will meet at the Midwest meeting in March 2010

The nomination form can be found on the Midwest web site:

<http://adsa.asas.org/midwest/2010.asp> . You are encouraged to take a few minutes to nominate deserving individuals to the Graduate Student Program Planning Committee.

The deadline to submit nominations for 2010-2011 Graduate Student Program Planning Committee is February 8, 2010.
